

Memphis State University to Involve Citizens in School Planning

Memphis State University has been named one of 20 colleges and universities throughout the U. S. and Canada selected by Phi Delta Kappa to provide training workshops for educators who seek to involve citizens in the improvement of school planning. About 100 major institutions will join a network of twenty centers where training for area school personnel will be provided. The program will be based in the College of Education, Department of Educational Administration and Supervision.

JTAS Souvenirs to be Available

The Journal of the Tennessee Academy of Science is now available in microfilm and microfiche through AMS Press, Inc., 56 East 13th Street, New York, N. Y. 10003. A number of quarterly issues which have been kept on file (some of them classics of the 1930's and 1940's) will be made available to TAS members at the November meetings at Vanderbilt University. Be sure to look near the registration desk for these souvenir copies.
